

Welcome!

Department of History's

2023 URECA CELEBRATION

Congratulations to this year's Undergraduate Researchers. Event schedule:

11:20 AM	CJ Burgardt	"The Catholic Church and the Illiberal Regimes of Spain and Italy"
11:35	Josie Lapinski	"Performance and Perversion: Folk Dancing, Socialist Realism, and Solidarity in the People's Republic of Poland"
11:50	Amali Nunez	"Samuel Sewall: The First Anti-Slavery Man in America"
12:10 PM	Thomas M. Brennan	"The Fascist Portrayal of Francesco de Pinedo's Flights"
12:25	Peiyao Guo	"An Analysis of the Declassified State Department Files on the Indonesian Genocide"
12:40	Emily Monteleone	"The Internal Factors: How Brazilians Contribute to Climate Change"
1:00	Lunch Break
2:00	Thomas F. Brennan	"Educating Black Children with Disabilities in Post-Civil War America"
2:15	Patrick Doherty	"Compliance & Collaboration: The German Catholic Church during the Third Reich"
2:30	Juliet Romano	"Climate Change: The Beginning of the End?"
2:45	Kelcie Eberharth	"Medical Ethics, Consent, and Coercion in a Colonial Setting: The Polio Vaccine Trials in the Belgian Congo"
3:00	Natacha Castillo	"Bachata: From Political to Social, the Voice of the 'Bateys'"
3:25	Best Presentation and Best Research Awards Announced

