

NYCLAHW

New York City Latin American History Workshop

Schedule of Events: 2015–2016

Fall 2015

September 25: Edgardo Pérez-Morales (NYU) "The Common Wind Blows South: Tierra Firme in the Wake of the Haitian Revolution"

October 23: Alfonso Salgado (Columbia) "Marrying into the Party: Communist Families in Twentieth-Century Chile"

December 4: Kaysha Corinealdi (Case Western Reserve) "Todo por la patria: Negotiating Exclusion and Empire in Mid-Twentieth Century Panama"

Spring 2016

January 29: Elizabeth Newman (Stony Brook University) "Architecture, Labor and Modernization on a Mexican Hacienda, 1650-1970"

February 26: Jonathan Hill (CUNY) "Power Lines: Water, Colonization, and Agro-Electric Revolution in Northern Mexico"

April 1: Reinaldo Funes (Universidad de Havana/Yale) "Environmental Issues in Cuba under the Socialist Revolution"

Note: This year's Workshops are held Fridays from 11am-12:30 pm at Stony Brook Manhattan (101-113 East 27th Street, 3rd Floor, at Park Ave.; ph. 646-472-0000), followed by lunch. Please contact david.yee@stonybrook.edu to join the mailing list or to receive papers to be discussed, pre-circulated a week prior to each meeting. Free and open to the public.

Sponsored by Latin American and Caribbean Studies, Stony Brook University; History Department, Institute of Latin American Studies, Columbia University; CUNY Graduate Center Doctoral Program in History; Center for Latin American and Caribbean Studies, New York University; Committee on Historical Studies, New School for Social Research, and the Embassy of Spain.