The Dr. Krishna Gujavarty Seminar on Leadership and Values

Dr. Ram Raju
Senior Vice President, Northwell Health

Improving Health Outcomes and Eliminating Disparities in Vulnerable Communities through Holistic Care

Wednesday, September 26, 2018
Wang Center Theater
1:00 PM

In a rapidly changing healthcare marketplace, how do we improve the health outcomes of the patients in the most vulnerable communities? Drawing on his vast executive leadership experience, Dr. Ram Raju will share how he develops solutions in collaboration with community-based organizations to support equity and diversity and eliminate health disparities.

Dr. Ram Raju is Senior Vice President and Community Health Investment Officer for Northwell Health. He is the former president and CEO of NYC Health + Hospitals, and CEO for the Cook County (Illinois) Health and Hospitals System, and he served as vice-chair of the Greater New York Hospital Association. He serves on the boards of numerous city, state and national health care organizations.

Dr. Raju received his medical education from Madras Medical College and continued his training in England. He is a Fellow of the Royal College of Surgeons. He earned an MBA from the University of Tennessee and CPE from the American College of Physician Executives.

The endowed Dr. Gujavarty Seminar on Leadership and Values, designed for undergraduate students, seeks to foster values-based leadership. It features leaders from the Asian Indian community who share their vision, values, strategies, insights and experience in defining leadership in business, not-for-profits, media, politics, education, and ethics.

All are invited. For details, call Mattoo Center for India Studies 632-9742 or indiastudies@stonybrook.edu
