

Latin American & Caribbean Studies

Fall 2007

SEPTEMBER 11

ART OPENING & RECEPTION:

Coca: A Photo Exhibition Presented by Scott Brennan

Viewing: September 11 - 28, 2007

A series of photos shot in October of 2005, shortly before the elections that brought Morales into office. It is a portrait of the people and towns that make up the Los Yungas region, which is the oldest known coca growing region in the world. It is here that the leaf has been grown since pre-Inca times, centuries before the illicit narcotic was invented from extracting its ingredients.

5:00-7:00 PM - LACS Gallery

Social & Behavioral Sciences Bldg., Room N320

Refreshments Served.

SEPTEMBER 12

HISPANIC HERITAGE MONTH OPEN HOUSE

You are invited to join the Hispanic Heritage Month Committee and student organizations at Stony Brook University to meet and greet fellow students, staff and faculty.

12:30-2:00 PM - Student Activities Center Auditorium

SEPTEMBER 12

SEMINAR:

"Bolivia Today: Indigenous Movements and Popular Sovereignities"

Bolivia has undergone profound changes from the time of the Water War of 2000 in Cochabamba. Indigenous, trade-union, and grassroots social movements have spearheaded this process and set the agenda for national transformation. At the center of debate are the issues of ending "internal colonialism" and establishing collective popular sovereignty over resources such as energy, water, coca and territory.

2:00-4:00 PM - Humanities Institute, Room 1008

SEPTEMBER 27

SEMINAR:

Venezuela and Bolivia: A journalist's reflection on the limits and possibilities of "21st century socialism."

Christian Parenti, a correspondent for the Nation has reported extensively from Iraq, Afghanistan and Latin America. His work from Latin America has also appeared in the London Review of Books and NACLA.

4:00-6:00 PM - Humanities Institute, Room 1006

OCTOBER 3

HISPANIC HERITAGE MONTH OPENING CELEBRATION

"50 Years of Positive Impact at Stony Brook / 50 Años de Impacto Positivo en Stony Brook"

Join our celebration of Hispanic Heritage with our proud campus community and neighbors. Entertainment and food will be provided. All are invited.

12:00-2:00 PM - Student Activity Center

OCTOBER 4

ART EXHIBIT and RECEPTION:

Student Activities Center Art Gallery

"450 Women Have Been Murdered in Ciudad Juárez"

Guest speakers and artwork depicts unsolved crimes occurring on the border of U.S and Mexico's Ciudad Juárez.

Co-Sponsored by Sigma Lambda Upsilon/ Señoritas Latinas Unidas Sorority, Inc

5:00-7:00 PM - Student Activities Center

Refreshments Served.

OCTOBER 8

ART OPENING & RECEPTION:

Humanization in the Health Field: National Memory

The Ministry of Health, Brazil, The Health Assistance Secretary (SAS) and The National Humanization Policy Coordination (PNH) presents a Photographic Exhibition by Radilson Carlos Gomes, Photographer, Annibal Coelho de Amorim, M.D., Curator and Dário Frederico Pasche, PNH Coordinator.

5:00-7:00 PM - LACS Gallery

Social & Behavioral Sciences Bldg., Room N320

Refreshments Served.

OCTOBER 10 - 13

CONFERENCE: Cosmopolitanism and Globalization:

Memory-Spaces-Cities-Images

This conference seeks to interrogate the usefulness of cosmopolitanism as a concept for understanding and contributing to our current historical, cultural and political movement. Questions of nation, race, and gender will be addressed along with intersections of globalization with universalism.

Humanities Institute, Room 1006

For complete Schedule visit: www.stonybrook.edu/humanities/conferences.shtml

OCTOBER 19

Award Application Deadline!!

A. Sanchez Scholarship Undergraduate Award for Academic Achievement. This annual award recognizes an undergraduate student of outstanding academic achievement, scholarly promise, service and leadership to the community.

For applications and additional information visit our website:

www.stonybrook.edu/lacc

OCTOBER 31

PROVOST LECTURE SERIES:

Jane L. Delgado is President and CEO of the National Alliance for Hispanic Health, the nation's largest organization of health and human service providers to Hispanics—more than 14 million consumers annually. Dr. Delgado is a trusted advocate and has a PhD in Clinical Psychology from Stony Brook University. In 2007, People en Español identified her as one of the 100 most influential throughout the U.S. and Latin America.

4:00 PM - Student Activities Center Auditorium

OCTOBER 31

HISPANIC HERITAGE MONTH AWARDS DINNER

To celebrate the accomplishments of Stony Brook students, faculty, staff and alumni for excellence, leadership and community service. For tickets or donations please contact Hispanic Heritage Month Planning Committee at 632-6280.

5:30-8:00 PM - SAC Ballroom A

NOVEMBER 14

The MAJOR/MINOR Event

12 - 2 PM @ Student Activity Center

Don't miss this MAJOR Event!! Have you declared a Major Minor or are still considering which to choose? Come talk with departmental representatives to learn about your options.

NEW YORK CITY LATIN AMERICAN HISTORY WORKSHOP (NYCLAHW)

an inter-university scholarly project between Columbia and Stony Brook Universities meets: FRIDAYS @ 12 pm at Stony Brook Manhattan (401 Park Ave. South at 28th St, 2nd Fl)

Presenters are:

SEPTEMBER 24: Vera Candiani (Princeton)

OCTOBER 26: Federico Finchelstein (The New School)

NOVEMBER 30: Michelle Chase (NYU)